

Protected Classes

Race (1866) No exceptions

Religion (1968)

Color (1968)

National Origin (1968)

Sex (1974)

Familial status (1988)

- Pregnant women

- Families with children

- Adults serving as guardians for children

- Those in the process of obtaining legal custody of children (adoption)

Handicapped (1988)

- Mental retardation

- Mental illness

- Epilepsy

- Cerebral palsy

- Visual and hearing impairments

- AIDS

- Other disabilities

- People with walkers, wheelchairs, service dogs or a personal care attendant

Exemptions

Private Owners

- Owner occupied no more than four units

- Own no more than three houses and sell no more than one in a 24 month period

Religious organizations

Private clubs

Housing for elderly

It is important to remember what to do if you receive an inquiry about the presence of any person in our dwellings. You must tell the person to put the request in writing and mail it to our office. There it will be directed to the appropriate person who will respond appropriately. There are some proper questions that can be answered, but only in writing, after receiving a written request.